The New York World

Thrice-a-week Edition.

The Thrice-a-week World hopes to be in 1908 a better paper than it has ever been before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports every thing fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only paper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

The Thrice-a-week World is fair in its political reports. You can get the truth from its columns, whether you are a Republican or Democrat, and that is what you want.

A special feature of the Thrice-a-week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past.

The Thrice-a-week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and The Banner together for one year for $1.05. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.

JOURNALIST AS AN ADVISER

Day is Almost Gone When He is Made the Confidant of Rulers.

The recent appointment of Dr. G. E. Morrison, the well-known English newspaper correspondent, as adviser to the new Chinese government, is an exception which emphasizes the fact that the day is almost gone when the journalist is the confidant of rulers. Of course, one reason is the passing of master journalists of the type of Delane, Blowitz or Greeley. It is probable that none of those men could flourish today as they did in their time, for the reason that journalism itself has undergone a tremendous change.

When Henri de Blowitz got his famous "beat" on the Berlin treaty of 1878 it was the result of years of intimate contact and service to statesmanship. There were "leaks" in those days that spelled fame and fortune for the man who caught the leakage.

Such a relationship is well-nigh impossible now. Today, and especially in our own country, the whole machinery of government is press-agented, so to speak. Every great department of our national life has a man whose function is to disseminate to the public, and through the press, a knowledge of its activities. Rarely, indeed, does a great piece of exclusive news come out of Washington—or, for that matter, from the European capitals.

All which simply goes to show that news, like everything else, has come to be a matter of system.—Munsey's Magazine.

BADLY CONFUSED.

"The present turmoil of politics must have added poor Dublin's brain."

"Why do you think so?"
"I notice he's spelling 'candidate' these days with three d's."

FAMOUS STAGE BEAUTIES
look with horror on skin eruptions, blotches, sores or pimples. They don't meet them for all such troubles use Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It glorifies the face; excellent for eczema or salt rheum; it cures sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains; heals burns cuts and bruises. Unsurpassed for piles. 55c at S. E. McGeachy. Adv.

GILBERT HAD A READY WIT

Famous Author of "The Mikado" Was Never at a Loss for a Retort.

His table talk will not be garnered up in dismal little volumes where the champagne is flat and the lamps burn dim. Brevity was the soul of his wit, says Rowland Gray in the Century. The terrible verdict as to a certain "Hamlet" whose impersonator unwisely asked him to be candid is historical.

"Funny, my dear fellow—funny without being vulgar."

A remark about another conceited player was made to a very limited audience:

"Poor ———! He has all the faults of an actor without the excuse of being one."

A word was enough. He described a sweet old woman, all sloping shoulders and Honiton lace, as "belonging to the early keepsake period." Another, who was being ridiculed for the hideous Middlesex accent, which converted bad weather into a "voil d'y," was gravely defended by him: "She is of ancient lineage; for it is evident she is descended from the Twanglo-Saxons." Of a stout matron in society he remarked: "I like Mrs. A——, but I prefer a woman to be as long as she is broad." Rallied for his admiration of several beauties at once, he retorted, "But surely I am too good to be true," which was unanswerable.

COULD SHOUT FOR JOY.

I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart, wrote C. B. Rader of Lewisburg, W. Va. for the wonderful benefit I from Electric Bitters in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as though made for me. For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice, and to rid the system of kidney poison that causes rheumatism, Electric Bitters have no superior. Try them, every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c at S. E. McGeachy. Adv.

HIDE THE CAMERA IN ITALY

Country Jealously Guards Its Secrets of Defense From the Prying of Tourists.

No country guards the secret of its defenses with such care as Italy. Many an innocent tourist loses his camera through ignorance of the regulations enforced in districts near the French frontier. If you are traveling by train straight through from Modena to Turin you may safely take a camera with you. But should you get out at Bardonecchia, the first station on the Italian side, or at any other station between that and Susa—nineteen miles further on—your camera is confiscated.

Anyone bicycling, motoring or tramping across the frontier with a camera is forced to hand it over, no matter what his destination may be. Of course the camera can be recovered if you return the same way, but it is lost if you leave the country by another route.—New York Telegram.

NOT HIS CLASS.

RING IN OLD TREE.

Walking in the woods near Livingston, N. J., two young farmers came upon an old tree which had been split in half by lightning. While examining the tree the youths were surprised to see something glinting in the wood. With some difficulty they succeeded in digging out a gold band wedding ring. The circle bore the inscription, "To Julia Henderson from John, May 17, 1879." It is thought that some visitor lost the ring many years ago when the tree was but a sapling and that it became imbedded in the trunk.

CONSTITUTIONAL POINT.

The Learned Counsel—Yes, the constitution certainly forbids cruel and unusual punishments.

The Plain Vag—Den how about dis rock pile sentence of mine? It sure is cruel to put me to work, 'cause work is de most unusual thing dat could happen to me.—New York Globe.

A Des Moines man had an attack of muscular rheumatism in his shoulder. A friend advised him to go to Hot Springs. That meant an expense of $150.00 or more. He sought for a quicker and cheaper way to cure it and found it in Chamberlain's Liniment. Three days after the first application of this liniment he was well. For sale by All Dealers. Adv.
